

Brigitte Benquet

Brigitte Benquet is an internationally recognized financial leader with over 40 years of extensive experience in managing financial operations for both global Fortune 500 companies and emerging technology startups. As the Co-Founder and CEO of Unified Finance Organization, Brigitte has been instrumental in transforming financial practices and enabling substantial fundraising and profitability turnarounds for a diverse array of clients.

Brigitte's career is a testament to her ability to lead through complex, high-stakes financial situations. She is known for her strategic vision, exceptional problem-solving skills, and unwavering commitment to driving growth and operational excellence.

Her expertise spans multiple industries, including software, semiconductors, chemicals, medical equipment, automotive, glass and paint, and services, making her a versatile and highly sought-after financial strategist.

At Unified Finance Organization, Brigitte has cultivated a platform that emphasizes getting the fundamentals right, which has empowered numerous startups and small to medium-sized enterprises to achieve financial stability and growth. Her leadership has facilitated hundreds of millions in fundraising efforts, and she has overseen significant profitability improvements for her clients.

Prior to founding Unified Finance Organization, Brigitte held key financial leadership roles at Applied Materials and Medtronic, where she managed finance operations across multiple continents, led ERP implementations, and spearheaded strategic finance initiatives. Her tenure at these companies underscored her capacity to manage large teams and complex financial systems, driving operational efficiencies and ensuring robust financial health.

Brigitte's entrepreneurial spirit also led her to establish Brigitte's Restaurant in Silicon Valley, a venture that not only achieved critical acclaim but also demonstrated her versatility and adeptness in managing business operations beyond the financial sector.

Brigitte's academic background includes an MBA from ESSEC Business School in France and executive training at INSEAD. She is fluent in English, French, and Spanish, and her commitment to continuous learning and professional development is evident in her extensive training in business process engineering, finance transformation, and health and safety compliance.

A frequent speaker at industry forums and academic institutions, Brigitte is dedicated to sharing her knowledge and fostering the next generation of financial leaders. Her personal interests include sailing, hiking, and culinary arts, reflecting a well-rounded and dynamic personality.

Brigitte Benquet is a visionary leader who exemplifies financial excellence and strategic innovation. Her profound impact on the financial health of numerous organizations, combined with her dedication to ethical and transparent financial practices, makes her a pivotal figure in the world of finance.
